Burning Whispers Dianne Marshall

Quietly perched near the Empire State Building, the malicious Lucifer looks down upon a nation he has helped build only to destroy. Known to his minions simply as the Dragon, he whispers nearly inaudible instructions to our political leaders and religious teaching in hopes they will add another piece to his most magnificent moment of chaos with the people. Join the Dragon as he takes his right hand, O'Hellian, on a whirlwind tour throughout the decades of America's resurrection as the great nation it is today. Traveling back through time, the two wicked counterparts reminisce of what the world knows as great leaders, but the Dragon knows as his ignorant helpers--those who helped pave the way for the destruction of the biblical foundation our forefathers instilled in the constitution. Time after time, the Dragon's dark voice weaves into the political mindset of leaders who have and continue to lead us astray. O'Hellian and his master take great pleasure in the manipulation of the American people, and its entertainment value is all they have to keep going until The One Who Sits On The Throne returns to punish them for their accomplishments. With that day's arrival sooner than ever, the Dragon indignantly refuses to let his laughter fade but only tries harder to deceive the souls of the seemingly innocent. Still perched upon the Empire State Building, the Dragon continues his Burning Whispers.
