He Loves Us and We Love Him: You've Memorized It, Now Live It Laurel Christensen

It's been twenty-five years since the Young Women theme and values were first introduced to the world. Today, the timeless truths of that theme and the simplicity of those values are proving themselves to be more needed than ever. As the world grows more aggressive in sharing lies about the way to find happiness, it's never been more critical that daughters of God know and understand the truths they recite every Sunday. In her conversational style, Laurel shares a message that God does love them, and when they learn to live according to their love for Him, they'll see the power of this remarkable theme in their lives.
