La pintora de estrellas (Spanish Edition) Amelia Noguera

Una historia sobre el exilio, la guerra, la traición y el amor no correspondido. Un relato sobre el valor de una mujer y la memoria de un hombre que necesita redimir su pasado.

En París encontraron un nuevo hogar...

En 1934 los jóvenes Diego, Elisa y Martín huyen de una España convulsa y al borde de la Guerra Civil y se trasladan a Francia con sus familias para comenzar una nueva vida. Allí Elisa logrará su gran ilusión, ser pintora y formar parte del mágico ambiente de las galerías parisinas, lo que, junto al amor incondicional de Diego, consigue hacer de ella una mujer totalmente feliz. Sin embargo, cuando la sombra de la Segunda Guerra Mundial aterriza en París, su idealismo y su pasión por el arte pondrán en peligro su mundo.

...pero la traición y la barbarie fulminaron sus sueños

Setenta años después, ya anciano, Diego no se resigna a morir sin conjurar los fantasmas del pasado para que rindan cuenta de sus faltas y le devuelvan la paz a su conciencia. Violeta, su nieta, embarazada y huyendo de su marido, lo acompañará en un viaje a Asturias, la tierra que un día abandonó y a la que nunca tuvo valor de regresar. Un viaje a lo más hondo de su ser, de sus luces y sus sombras, que hará que Violeta se replantee toda su vida.

Amelia Noguera construye una novela lírica y envolvente que habla de la nostalgia, de la esperanza, del dolor, del amor, del exilio y de la memoria en dos épocas distintas, demostrando que las pasiones humanas sobreviven indemnes a los años como pinceladas en un lienzo.
