The trolls are in the verge of extinction.

Their customs are gone, their lands have diminished, their domain has vanished.

Erion, the trolls' leader, caught the glimpse of a mother and her child stranded in the mountains of Hellyah.

They mean nothing to him, and can do nothing for his people. But leaving them to perish goes against everything in which he believes.

In his journey through ice and snow, Erion will test his faith and his belief in life, the only things left to his people.
