Undefeated: The story of Bali Bombing survivor Phil Britten Phil Britten

From his carefree days growing up in country Western Australia, heading towards a promising football career, Phil Britten's dreams were destroyed instantly when he was caught up in the Bali terrorist attacks of 2002. After escaping the flames of the Sari Club, Phil had to fight hard to survive the months ahead and overcome his horrific burns injuries. But when the focus shifted from simply surviving to actually living, the real battle began. Would he live the life of depression and darkness that the terrorists had tried to force upon him? Or would he defiantly take back his future with both hands, reclaiming it once again as his own? His mind made up to overcome his demons, Phil worked hard at getting his life back. A life that was nearly stolen from him. From being referred to as "disaster male 30" at the start of his hospital treatment, to becoming an inspiration to his local community, Phil Britten finally tells of his courageous journey in his own words.
