Edmund Wilson

James Joyce (Endebate) (Spanish Edition) Edmund Wilson

El extraordinario ensayo del mejor crítico del siglo XX sobre Joyce y el Ulises, la obra que marcó un antes y un después en la literatura universal.

En James Joyce, escrito en 1931, Edmund Wilson hace un sucinto repaso a las obras previas del autor, se lanza con su acostumbrada brillantez a un análisis en profundidad del Ulises y termina con un penetrante estudio del entonces inacabado Finnegan's Wake. Según Wilson, Joyce es «El gran poeta de una fase nueva de la conciencia humana», y con el Ulises «aporta a la literatura una nueva y desconocida belleza».

La obra de Joyce, tan famosa como poco leída, encuentra en este ensayo una de sus mejores explicaciones.

Harold Bloom ha dicho...

«Edmund Wilson sobrevive como crítico por su infinita vitalidad y su intenso amor por la literatura.»
