Christmas Eve. As she does every year, Jo is spending the evening working in her family's store when suddenly a car screeches to a halt and a gorgeous man appears, looking for a present for a little girl. This proves to be too tall an order for a general store in the countryside of Australia, but Jo has a solution for the disappointed man. She finds a stuffed animal she'd been saving for her sister. Normal life resumes after she watches him drive off, smiling and with a gift in hand...until she finds him at her house later that day. He says he has a favor to ask of her...
