Harry and Lola Santa Paws 2 - Harry and Lola Help Santa Paws (Harry and Lola books Book 6) Jean Nave

The joyous spirit of Christmas, sharing and caring, is at the heart of this story and 20 original color illustrations. Children love to help and want to be loved. This story inspires these qualities in the reader. At the end of the book kids are invited to become a part of Santa Paws' team of helpers by making any size or type of contribution to any dog rescue organization. Then they can email Harry and Lola at jean@harryandlola.org to receive an official personalized poster showing they are part of the Santa Paws team.

Harry and Lola Help Santa Paws, returns the pair as Christmas Eve helpers, but this time they bring a friend. Just before they leave to meet Santa Paws they find a neglected young Corgi which they name Prince. Prince needs a home but there is no time to deal with that, so they bring him with them to help Santa Paws. Before going on their Christmas Eve world tour giving treats and food to dogs, the Christmas troupe has to rescue dogs that have been injured in a Christmas Eve tornado. Prince discovers strength and courage he didn't know he had. When Prince works to help dogs in need, he discovers his passion for his life and Santa Paws discovers an apprentice.

At the end of the book kids are invited to become a part of Santa Paws' team of helpers by making any size or type of contribution to any dog rescue organization. Then they can email Harry and Lola at jean@harryandlola.org to receive an official personalized poster showing they are part of the Santa Paws team. All profits from the sale of this, and all Harry and Lola books, go to Aberdeen Scottish Terrier Rescue.
