The Truth And Reconciliation Commission in South Africa - A Learner's Diary Daniela Kröner
Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies - Literature, grade: 1,3, University of Duisburg-Essen, course: The Truth And Reconciliation Commission in South Africa, 9 entries in the bibliography, language: English, abstract: Introduction

In this learner's diary I will try to give an insight into the learning progress I went through during the course The Truth and Reconciliation Commission in South Africa. The order of the chapters reflects the order of the session we had at university. I will not hide my own opinion in order to stick to the idea of a diary. I will use in class material and sheets that we worked out in groups. In addition to that, I will support my own ideas by quotations of the novels we read and information I found.
