Green Earrings and a Felt Hat Jerry Newman

Best friends like Susan and Carolyn always trade stuff back and forth. Sometimes Susan lends Carolyn her green earrings and orange Frisbee, or Carolyn lets Susan borrow her felt hat or a favorite book. But when they get into a fight, they have to return everything they've borrowed. Soon they realize that it wasn't the felt hat or green earrings they were missing; it was each other.

This easy reader is just the right length for children making the transition from picture books to chapter books. The realistic story, enlivened by jazzy, energetic illustrations, is sure to strike a chord with little girls--and their best friends!
