For God so Loved the One Kerry Blair

The story of a Christmas orange changing the life of a little orphan girl has been popular for decades. The story of a Christmas orange changing the lives of two Arizona sisters in the gospel has never been told. Until now. This contemporary true story of the miracle of a simple Christmas orange is a poignant reminder of the wonders that can happen when we follow the Spirit and share God's love with all of His children—but especially when we share it with the one.
